JURISDICTIONAL QUESTION

Please address whether the notice of appeal contains the signature of Duane Berry, who has purported to be a federal trustee for the Department of Treasury, so as to comply with the federal rules of procedure. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(a) (“Every pleading, written motion, and other paper must be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney’s name— or by a party personally if the party is unrepresented. The court must strike an unsigned paper unless the omission is promptly corrected after being called to the attorney’s or party’s attention.”); Fed. R. App. P. 25(a)(2)(B)(iii); Becker v. Montgomery, 532 U.S. 757, 760–65 (2001) (noting that the signature requirement applies to notices of appeal but is not jurisdictional and may be satisfied after expiration of the initial appeal period if the notice is otherwise timely and sufficient, and promptly corrected); see also 11th Cir. R. 25-4 (requiring all filed papers to be signed); Thiem v. Hertz Corp., 732 F.2d 1559, 1562–63 (11th Cir. 1984) (holding that a notice of appeal was sufficient to confer appellate jurisdiction where the names of counsel and the appellant were typed on the notice of appeal).

If the notice of appeal is in fact deficient, please address whether Berry can cure the lack of a signature by filing a signed notice of appeal in the district court. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(a); Becker, 532 U.S. at 760–65.

Case No. _____

COMPLAINT FOR FORFEITURE IN REM

Counsel
United States Department of Justice
Civil Division
950 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20530

NOW COMES the United States Department of the Treasury, Plaintiff herein, by and through FEDERAL TRUSTEE Duane L. Berry pursuant to Department of Treasury (IRS) code 26 U.S.C § 6903 and the United States Attorney General pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 516, in a civil cause of forfeiture, and respectfully states the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is a civil action in rem pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(A) and (C). Procedures for this action are mandated by Rule G of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions and, to the extent applicable, 18 U.S.C. §§ 981, 983, and 984, and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

2. This action seeks the forfeiture of all right, title, and interest in the above captioned property because the property constitutes or is derived from wire fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343, major fraud against the United States in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1031, and financial monetary transactions of tax instruments and money laundering conspiracy in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1957 and 1956(h). As set forth more fully below, the conspirators identified herein, through fraud and false pretenses, obtained the property and or engaged in numerous transactions concerning fraud relating to tax instruments, monetary transactions, and money laundering.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over this action commenced by the United States under 28 U.S.C. § 1345 and over this action for forfeiture under 28 U.S.C. § 1355(a). The Court has in rem jurisdiction over the defendant property under 28 U.S.C. § 1355(b).

4. This Court has venue pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1355 and 1395, as defendant property was found in this district.

Case 3:21-cv-00292-D-BT Document 2 Filed 03/21/21 Page 2 of 17 PageID 5
5. The defendant is all present and future interest in the following property (hereafter collectively, "Seized Federal Securities"): (SEE EXHIBIT A)

6. The Seized Federal Securities, pursuant to the National Security Act (50 U.S.C. 3162(a)(1)) and other means, are currently being held in part by the Plaintiff, its FEDERAL TRUSTEE, and or the United States Marshals Service. (SEE EXHIBIT B)

7. Pursuant to Supplemental Rule G(2)(f), facts in support of a reasonable belief that the Government will be able to meet its burden of proof at trial as follows and have been verified by the attached FEDERAL TRUSTEE'S complaint with the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA). (SEE EXHIBIT C)

SUMMARY OF THE FRAUD

8. On 12/02/2019, FEDERAL TRUSTEE Duane L. Berry, and "Whistleblower" against then President Donald J. Trump, moved the 2nd Circuit Court of Appeals in an "Emergency Motion to Intervene" in the Presidents tax fraud investigation case which involved the United States House of Representatives as Intervenors and several media outlets as Movants. See Trump v. Deutsche Bank et al. (SEE EXHIBIT D)

9. Pending the action...millions of un-redacted classified tax returns and other sensitive financial data, bank records and accounts of banking and tax transactions of several million americans, federal government agencies, including but not limited to the United States Department of Defense, United States Department of State, and the (Plaintiff) United States Department of the Treasury were unlawfully obtained by the media outlets, President Trump, who is now facing criminal impeachment hearings in the Senate, and several other conspirators. (SEE EXHIBIT E)

10. After repeated attempts to informally retrieve the Seized Federal Securities from the conspirators by the FEDERAL TRUSTEE, the Plaintiff, by and through its FEDERAL TRUSTEE and its powers appointed to him by Congress pursuant 26 U.S.C § 6903 employed the National Security Act, and other means, to retrieve the Seized Federal Securities.

11. The leak of the Seized Federal Securities has been a direct breach of the national security of the United States in which several trillion dollars of monetary transactions are potentially being exposed and compromised by the conspirators and other foreign entities, including the 'dark web' and Russian operatives.

12. The leak is also in direct violation of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, in which financial institutions are not permitted to disclose nonpublic information of a customer to a third party without the consent of the customer. See 15 U.S.C. § 6802 (a)(b). Nonpublic personal information includes personally identifiable financial account information, including names and street addresses, where those details are disclosed in a manner that indicates the associated names are clients of a financial institution See 16 C.F.R. § 313.3(n)(1)(i), (3)(ii). All of which have been factors in this leak.

13. Furthermore, "tax returns are generally afforded special protection from public disclosure", See e.g. Solomon v. Siemens Indus., Inc., 8 f. Supp. 3D 261, 285-86(E.D.N.Y. 2014) and any unlawful possession of tax returns for specific individuals or government security agencies would jeopardize the national security of the United States.

CONCLUSION

14. By virtue of the foregoing, ALL right, title, and interest in the Seized Federal Securities ~~held~~ in the United States at the time of the commission of the unlawful acts giving rise to forfeiture has now become forfeitable to the United States.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully prays the Court that:

- A. Due notice be given to all known conspirators to appear and show cause why the forfeiture should not be decreed;
- B. Judgment be entered declaring the Seized Federal Securities be forfeited to the United States for disposition according to law; and
- C. The Plaintiff be granted such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper, together with the costs and disbursements of this action, including but not limited to the expenses of maintenance and protection of the Seized Federal Securities.

Dated: January 29, 2021

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

No. 22-13005

DONALD J. TRUMP,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

versus

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Defendant-Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida
D.C. Docket No. 9:22-cv-81294-AMC

Before WILLIAM PRYOR, Chief Judge, GRANT, and BRASHER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:

This appeal requires us to consider whether the district court had jurisdiction to block the United States from using lawfully seized records in a criminal investigation. The answer is no.

Former President Donald J. Trump brought a civil action seeking an injunction against the government after it executed a search warrant at his Mar-a-Lago residence. He argues that a court-mandated special master review process is necessary because the government's Privilege Review Team protocols were inadequate, because various seized documents are protected by executive or attorney-client privilege, because he could have declassified documents or designated them as personal rather than presidential records, and—if all that fails—because the government's appeal was procedurally deficient. The government disagrees with each contention.

These disputes ignore one fundamental question—whether the district court had the power to hear the case. After all: “Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction. They possess only that power authorized by Constitution and statute, which is not to be expanded by judicial decree.” Kokkonen v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 511 U.S. 375, 377 (1994) (citation omitted).

Even so, the FBI developed more evidence that other classified documents remained at Mar-a-Lago. In August 2022—over one-and-a-half years after the end of Plaintiff’s presidential administration, six months after the first transfer of boxes to the National Archives, and three months after the subpoena was served—the Department of Justice sought a search warrant. It presented an FBI agent’s sworn affidavit to a Florida magistrate judge, who agreed that probable cause existed to believe that evidence of criminal violations would likely be found at Mar-a-Lago. Warrant Affidavit at 1, 32; Notice of Filing of Redacted Documents at 2, In re Sealed Search Warrant, No. 22-mj-08332 (S.D. Fla. Aug. 11, 2022) (“Search Warrant”). The magistrate judge issued a search warrant for the offices, storage rooms, and potential storage sites at Plaintiff’s residence, and authorized the seizure of:

All physical documents and records constituting evidence, contraband, fruits of crime, or other items illegally possessed in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 793, 2071, or 1519, including the following:

a. Any physical documents with classification markings, along with any containers/boxes (including any other contents) in which such documents are located, as well as any other containers/boxes that are collectively stored or found together with the aforementioned documents and containers/boxes; arising from the government's access to sensitive personal information or the threat of potential prosecution as irreparable injuries. And he asks us to find that he has no other remedy apart from equitable jurisdiction, even though he faces no remediable harm. Anyone could make these arguments. And accepting them would upend Richey, requiring federal courts to oversee routine criminal investigations beyond their constitutionally ascribed role of approving a search warrant based on a showing of probable cause. Our precedents do not allow this, and neither does our constitutional structure.

Only one possible justification for equitable jurisdiction remains: that Plaintiff is a former President of the United States. It is indeed extraordinary for a warrant to be executed at the home of a former president—but not in a way that affects our legal analysis or otherwise gives the judiciary license to interfere in an ongoing investigation. The Richey test has been in place for nearly fifty years; its limits apply no matter who the government is investigating. To create a special exception here would defy our Nation's foundational principle that our law applies “to all, without regard to numbers, wealth, or rank.” State of Georgia v. Brailsford, 3 U.S. (3 Dall.) 1, 4 (1794).

The law is clear. We cannot write a rule that allows any subject of a search warrant to block government investigations after the execution of the warrant. Nor can we write a rule that allows only former presidents to do so. Either approach would be a radical reordering of our caselaw limiting the federal courts' involvement in criminal investigations. And both would violate bedrock separation-of-powers limitations. Accordingly, we agree with the government that the district court improperly exercised equitable jurisdiction, and that dismissal of the entire proceeding is required.

The district court improperly exercised equitable jurisdiction in this case. For that reason, we VACATE the September 5 order on appeal and REMAND with instructions for the district court to DISMISS the underlying civil action.

Case#9:23-cr-80101-AMC -1

DONALD J. TRUMP, et al.,
Defendants

MOTION TO RETURN PROPERTY- RULE 41(g)

Rule 41(g) allows for a person aggrieved by the deprivation of seized property to move for its return.

On 06-21-2021 the Eleventh Circuit granted Interested Party and Federal Trustee Duane L. Berry a stay pending the arrest of classified Seized Federal Securities, which consisted of Donald J. Trump's financial, bank, and tax records. See attached-A.

Whereas, SEIZED FEDERAL SECURITIES have been arrested, however the attached portion of Donald J. Trump's financial, bank and or tax records arrested in this action in related Case#22-8832 and #22-13061 SEALED SEARCH WARRANT are also subject to SEIZED FEDERAL SECURITIES. See attached-B.

The Movants now request the return of this attached property, as it is simultaneously under arrest by the Department of Justice in Movant's investigation.

Furthermore, the Eleventh Circuit in Case#22-13005, Trump V. U.S.A., stated that the Court can not block a Government investigation after the execution of the warrant. See attached-C.
